Mac (GA) – The Department of Human Services (DHS) through Macon-Bibb County Economic Opportunity Council (EOC), Inc. will begin providing cooling assistance for low-income Bibb County residents through the COOLING Program.

Applicants must provide a copy of their most recent energy bill or a statement of services from their utility provider, proof of household income for the last 30 days (such as pay stubs or letter from an employer), a valid Georgia Driver’s License or Georgia State Issued I.D. for all adult members of the household and social security cards or printout for all household members.

A Macon-Bibb County EOC representative will contact each individual to specify the required documents that may be needed.

To qualify for the COOLING Program, applicants must have a yearly household income less than or equal to 60% of the state median income, as defined by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
